Dear Kahr Notes Subscriber:

I have a special announcement that's been a while in the making.

Over the last two years, I've been writing a book on real estate market analysis. After much work, the publication date has been set by my publisher (John Wiley and Sons) and it should hit the bookstores on September 23rd. The title is "Real Estate Market Valuation and Analysis".

With an equal mix of good timing and effective promotion, it should unseat the current market analysis favorite (ULI's Real Estate Market Analysis) and become the leading textbook for real estate market analysis.

The "sales copy" hasn't been posted yet, but it is available for pre-order. If you're interested, the link is:

On a unrelated note, I also have a bunch of Argus classes coming up. If you're looking to develop your knowledge of Argus, the dominant real estate investment software program, you should sign up.

The dates and locations are:

New York City, 5/5, 5/12, 5/19, and 5/26 (Thursday night), 6:00 - 9:00 PM

Boston course, 4/16 and 4/17 (Saturday and Sunday), 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM

Atlanta course, 4/29 and 4/30 (Friday and Saturday), 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM

To sign up for any of the above three courses, go to:
